1- Cold Calling

Cold call business owners and ask if they would like to sell their business. It's as simple as that.

2- Business For Sale Websites

There are a number of websites out there that advertise businesses for sale. These are business owners who are already motivated and willing to sell their business.

3- Business Brokers

A business broker can help you find a profitable opportunity that fits your financial means and experience. A quality broker will take the time to interview a buyer and figure out what business opportunity will be the best fit.

4- Other Business For Sale Advertisers

Check your local newspaper, local online classified ads and even Craigslist. You never know where you are going to find that diamond in the rough.

5- Networking

Let people know that you are looking to purchase a business. Get involved with Facebook and LinkedIn groups. Post on these groups and let them know what you are looking for. Contact local accountants and attorneys. These professionals work with business owners daily.
